

Give Them a Chance!

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boecher's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you, you may depend upon.

Merit Will Tell.

Was never better demonstrated than when "Fryer's Abietene Remedies" were awarded diplomas at the late California State Fair at Sacramento, and at the Mechanics Institute at San Francisco. W. Pinniger is agent for these celebrated "Abietene Remedies" and he offers to return your money if they do not give satisfaction. In buying, be sure the fac-simile signature of D. F. Fryer is on each, as none are genuine without it.

Bringing Gladness

To millions, pleasing their palates, and cleansing their systems, arousing their livers, kidneys, stomachs and bowels to a healthy activity. Such is the mission of the famous California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. Fifty-cent and $1 bottles for sale by Wm. Pinniger, Reno, Nevada.

40,000 Copies of "Gazette."

Through the ten days of Fair week there will be issued in all 40,000 copies of the DAILY GAZETTE. A like favorable opportunity for advertising never was presented to the people of Washoe county and others doing business in the State of Nevada. Stockraisers, merchants, professional men, manufacturers and all other business men should avail themselves of this opportunity to advertise.

Wonderful Cures.

W. D. Hoyt & Co., whole sale and retail druggists of Reno, Ga., say: "We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters, Bucklen's Arnica Salve for two years. Have never handled remedies that will so well or give such universal satisfaction. There have been some wonderful cures effected by medicines in this city. Several cases of pronounced consumption have been entirely cured by use of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters. We guarantee them always. Sold by S. J. Hodgkinson & Co."

Greatly Excited.

Not a few citizens of Reno have recently been excited over the astounding fact that several of their friends who had been pronounced by their physicians as incurable and beyond all hope—suffering with that dreaded monster Consumption—have been completely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, the only remedy that does positively cure all throat and lung diseases, coughs, colds, asthma and bronchitis. Several bottles from S. J. Hodgkinson & Co.'s drug store, at large bottles $1.

Unnecessary Misery.

Probably as much misery comes from habitual constipation as from any derangement of the functions of the body, and it is difficult to cure, for the reason that no one likes to take the medicines usually prescribed. Hamburg Figs were prepared to obviate this difficulty, and they will be found pleasant to the taste of women and children. At all druggists. J. J. Mack & Co., Proprietors, San Francisco.

Old And Reliable Medicines are the best to depend upon. Acker's Blood Purifier has been prescribed for years for all Impurities of the Blood. In every form of Scrofulous, Syphilitic or Mercurial Diseases it is invaluable. For Rheumatism, has no equal.

W. PINNIGER, Druggist.

The Maximilian Hercules.

Congratulate the art world! A long lost or hidden treasure has just been found. It happened in this wise: The Rev. Juan Graeco, chaplain of the church of San Diego in Tacubaya, ever ready to help the afflicted, accompanied one of his friends to the city for the purpose of aiding him to redeem certain effects which he had pawned, and while that friend was talking to the pawnbroker Padre Graeco, carelessly glancing at the motley heap of goods carelessly piled up in the inner "store-room," observed a diminutive, dust-covered statue and asked permission to examine it.

The pawnbroker dragged the statue out over the heap of old iron and scraps of copper, wiped it off with a bit of carpeting, and said grudgingly: "That thing seems fated to stick to me; twelve years ago I was fool enough to loan a man $36 on it, believing that it was valuable, but I have never been able to sell it. I still believe it has some merit and will let you have it for $25."

Padre Graeco, who is a cultivated man—a connoisseur—said: "It is really a valuable work of art. I will mention it to some of my parishioners and may possibly be able to send you a purchaser. The sole difficulty is my fear that it is stolen property, else I would take it now."

"Perhaps it did not belong to the individual who pledged it," responded the pawnbroker, "but I had it for years in the outer shop, and had any search been made, there it was for the owner to reclaim. I advanced the man (whom I believed to be the owner) $36; he never appeared to redeem it, therefore it became mine legally by the lapse of time."

The Padre still felt some scruples and refused to take the coveted statue, but subsequently having consulted some friends, among whom was a distinguished lawyer, he decided to buy and resell it in order to pay off a certain lien upon the new chapel which has just been added to the old church of San Diego.

The statue is a Hercules of jasper three feet high, and the workmanship is exquisite.

When the good Padre Juan Graeco exhibited his art treasure, several Imperialists at once recognized it as one of Maximilian's especial "gems." A Mexican gentleman who had lived in the imperial court says: "That Hercules was found in Pompeii and presented to the Emperor Maximilian's mother by a member of the royal family of Naples, and she gave it to her son years before he came to Mexico."

This account may be true and is a thousand times more probable than the ridiculous story about the effect that the statue is the work of Phidias, and has belonged to the House of Hapsburg for centuries. Had the Romans brought this Hercules from Greece to adorn the Eternal City, and had it ever found its way to Austria, the art world would long ago have been cognizant of the fact. The probabilities are that it was found in Pompeii.

General Joseph Llanos, governor of State of Mexico, and Juan, 44,000 for the statue; the offer has been declined. There may yet arise some question as to ownership, for it is quite probable that it was stolen from the palace during the confusion which prevailed immediately after the execution of the unfortunate emperor. On the other hand, Maximilian may have given this jasper statue to some faithful friend or officer, who, becoming poor, was obliged to pawn it, and either had no means to redeem it at the proper time, or perhaps died.

Just before his execution, the emperor gave several valuable articles to officials who had served him well. Your correspondent has seen three of these souvenirs.

The mystery connected with the long hidden Hercules will doubtless soon be explained. —[Mexico Correspondence New York Graphic.]

How She Converted Him.

Several weeks ago the proprietors of a machine foundry in this city, learned that their employees wanted to work under the eight-hour rule. The latter were told they might do as they pleased, provided they were willing to accept eight-hours' pay for eight hours' work. The proposition was agreed to, and the first day of trial all the men except seven or eight went home early. The next day the number that remained was a little larger, the third day still larger, and so on, until at the end of the week there wasn't a man in the establishment working less than the usual time.

One of the men who experimented with the eight-hour rule in the instance above referred to, tells how he came to change his opinion with regard to long and short time work. We give his story space, because it goes to show what an important factor of the labor problem home influence is. He says: "The second day we tried the eight-hour plan, I went home and found my wife sitting in the rocking-chair, leisurely reading the afternoon paper, and there was not a sign of preparation. Of course I began to expostulate with her about so unusual a state of affairs; but she made me feel very blank when she looked up and naively remarked that her day's work was over—that she was an 'eight-hour man.' The next day I was the last man to leave the shop, and on coming home I found the table spread and the meal awaiting me."

Pressing Home.

They were walking in the conservatory at the last White House reception.

"Will you love me with all your soul?" she murmured.

"Yes, darling," he answered.

"And all your heart?"

"Yes, dearest."

"And all your—"

"Everything, darling, everything," he interrupted.

"Pocket-book?" she continued, not noticing the interruption.

He gasped once and all was over.

Forty thousand copies of the GAZETTE.

A Chinese Complexion.

When observed in one of the Caucasian race, is indicative of bile in the blood. Who would be yellow when he or she can exhibit the hue of health on cheek and brow through the aid of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, an antagonist at whose onset liver complaint takes flight? For upon the tongue, nausea, sick headache, pains under the right ribs and shoulder blade, an unpleasantly odorous breath are remediable with this benign alternative, which does not, like a potent cathartic, drain the system, or, like the mercurial preparations, contaminate the blood. Not only the liver, but the stomach and bowels are aroused, toned and regulated by this fine family medicine, which has won the confidence of the respectable classes, not by startling assertions on its behalf, but by the consistency of the claims made for it with its performance in every instance when tested.

In Brief, and to the Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature. The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

Deserving of Confidence. There is no article which so richly deserves the entire confidence of the community as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Suffering from Asthmatic and Bronchial Diseases, Coughs and Colds should try them. Price 25 cents.

MONDAY, AUGUST 29, 1907

SINCE the recent Chatsworth horror many inventors have turned their attention to safety appliances for railroad cars in case of accident. One invention already patented calls for openings in the roof of the car, which are fitted with trap doors, from each of which depends a hooked bar, the lower end of which is engaged by the head of another bar, the latter being held down, to keep the trap door closed, by a hand lever, engaged by a vertical toothed bar. Upon releasing the lever from the toothed bar, the trap door may be readily raised or removed, and iron steps or rails being attached to the side of the car, on both the inside and outside of the car, a ready means of escaping from the car is thus afforded when other methods of egress might be cut off. In addition to these openings in the roof, similar openings, provided with trap doors, are arranged in the floor of the car.

CLIMATE is the principal attraction to many of the Eastern people now investing in California real estate. They want to escape hot summers, frigid winters and sudden and severe changes in weather. When the healthfulness of Nevada's climate becomes known in the East a rush, especially of those seeking health, in this direction, can be confidently expected. For those suffering from consumption, bronchial troubles, malaria and like ailments there is no air better than that wafted over arid plateaus from the pine forests of the Sierras. Reno is destined to become a great sanitarium as well as a large and prosperous business center, and shrewd business men are beginning to realize it.

WHILE the Commissioners of Elko county are, apparently, desirous of donating the old University building to the Presbyterian Church to assist that denomination in founding a semi-college in Elko, they are debarred from doing so by section one of Article XI of the state Constitution, which provides that "No public funds of any kind or character whatever, State, county, or municipal, shall be used for sectarian purposes." However, there are other ways of killing a cat than by drowning it. If the Elkoites want the Presbyterians to have the building the latter will, in all probability, get it.

MR. POWDERLY is gathering statistics and data upon which to base a plan for dealing with foreign immigration. He corrects some misstatements and explains his attitude as follows:

I would shut out every man and woman who would deprive an American citizen (native or naturalized) of his employment. It sounds very fine, and it certainly is sentimental, to call this a home for the oppressed, and that it is un-American to talk of keeping people away from our shores, but with 1,000,000 men and women out of employment and the number increasing with every wave it will soon be un-Christian as well as un-American to invite people here to starve them.

ABOUT the best feature of the wheat deal in California is the benefit derived by the rancher who sold his yield at an over-price. The elique had $1.80 in its pocket and the farmer had 100 pounds of wheat. Now, the farmer has the $1.80 and the elique has the wheat. If the wheat is worth only $1.20, then the elique will get only $1.20 for it. If the elique had not interfered, the farmer would have got only $1.20 for it. "It's an ill wind that blows no one good."

FROM all accounts the movement of lumber at Truckee and other points immediately west of Reno, this year, has been unusually heavy. An active demand continues to prevail in all the markets. Nevadans, and particularly Renolites, who contemplate building homes should do so as soon as possible. Lumber will never be cheaper.

SHOULD passenger coaches on the different railroads continue their efforts to telescope each other in the way which has become so destructively fashionable of late, the public will turn longingly to a contemplation of the old staging times.

Clean Your Alley. Constable Upon says that though he is inclined to be lenient towards property owners who have failed to comply with the town ordinance requiring them to clean their alleys, yet he will, in all probability, have to resort to legal procedure to compel several to do so. He is determined to have all the alleys in town cleaned by the 15th proximo.

WESTERN DISPATCHES.

The Warlike Redskins.

DENVER, August 29.

A telegram from Meeker by Courier Glenwood says: Information has been received that at Thursday's battle with Colorow, there were five whites killed instead of two, and four wounded, and seven Indians and two squaws killed and five wounded. There has been no fighting since Thursday, but over 600 Indians are camped within six miles of the troops and are ready to fight at the least provocation. The loss of nearly 300 ponies and the squaws has made them wild. They are ready for revenge. Colorow says he can get "heap young bucks from White river and Uncompahgre, who want to beap fight," and unless the whites go back Colorow will send for them. If he should make an attack, the troops and settlers estimate it will take the combined efforts of 2,000 regulars to drive them back to the reservation.

Over the Rapids.

BUFFALO, August 29.

Charles Alexander Percy, of Suspension Bridge, a young man 27 years old, made a safe trip through the whirlpool rapids today in a life boat built by himself during the past summer. The boat is about 17 feet long, with air chambers at either end, in one of which young Percy made the voyage. The boat, weighted with 2400 pounds of iron and bags of sand, carried in the hold, so it will right itself. An iron weight is attached to a long rope, trailed from the stern, so that the boat can be pulled ahead. Though it keeled in a threatening way, the craft rode the breakers without once upsetting.

Fire in Detroit.

DETROIT, August 29.

A fire at Delray, eight miles from here, this morning broke out in a dry kiln of the Anchor Manufacturing Company, and quickly spread to other buildings of the company. The loss will probably reach $300,000. The company's business is making cooperage supplies, and is the property of Peter Haverager's sons, of New York.

The Wheat Market.

CHICAGO, August 29.

There was a disposition on change this morning to treat the San Francisco deal as a side issue. Members talked of it freely. The Pacific Coast futures will not affect the market here, although it opened one-half lower. It was from other causes, and soon braced up to Saturday's prices.

WESTERN DISPATCHES.

They Will Not Answer.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 29.

Justice Field, of the United States Supreme Court, this morning delivered an opinion on the application of the Pacific Railroad Commission to compel Senator Stanford and other officers of the Central Pacific to answer certain questions in regard to the expenditure of funds for the purpose of influencing legislation. The opinion of the Court is that that part of the Act of Congress creating the Commission which involves the co-operation of the Court in assisting the Commission to carry on the investigation is unconstitutional. The Court, therefore, declines to make an order compelling the officers to answer questions.

Land-Grabbing Surveyors.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 29.

The United States Circuit Court today sustained the demurrers to the indictments against John A. Benson and other surveyors who were recently indicted for conspiracy in connection with alleged fraudulent land surveys. Justice Field delivered the opinion and said that of the four counts in each indictment three alleged conspiracy, and no overt act. The other alleged overt acts and no conspiracy. The Justice said the indictment could not stand.

In the first race a collision occurred between the horses at the head of the stretch, Zeb Ward, Sadie McMusic and Fountain all going down. Jockey West was badly hurt. His head was cut open, and he received other injuries. It is thought he will die.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 29.

CUT TO DEATH.

John A. Scott Killed for Refusing to Sign.

OSMA, August 29.

John Scott was stabbed to death at 2:30 this morning by F. C. Leman, at Burke's ranch, Lake Tahoe, Leman was brought here this morning by Bronson and Taylor, and is in jail. OSMA, August 29.

The Coroner and party have returned with the body of John A. Scott, stabbed by Leman at Burke's ranch, Lake Tahoe, yesterday morning. The evidence indicates a willful murder. The men had been drinking some, and Leman attempted to compel Scott to sing. Scott struck Leman with his fist. Leman went into his room, as though to bed. Scott went to the door, and asked him to come out and have a drink. Leman sprang at him, and stabbed him in the right arm and shoulder, covering the subclavian artery. Scott cried, "Just look at that!" staggered into the kitchen, and fell dead. The examination will take place to-morrow. Scott was from New York, and Leman from Sacramento county.

MOUNT ST. MARY'S.

Studies Resumed To-day—The Prospects of the School.

Mount St. Mary's Academy opened this morning. The majority of the young ladies who have not completed their course have already returned and the remainder will arrive this week. Mother Dolores and Sister Mary Vincent arrived on Friday from California and are in excellent health and spirits. They speak hopefully of the school.

Among those who have arrived is Miss Florence Hayward, who has been such a favorite with the pupils for the past two terms. Miss Hayward is a music teacher in the Academy. She studied under one of the most popular and accomplished teachers of the times, and all who have been instructed by her will bear witness to the excellence and efficiency of her method. While the system of education which prevails at Mount St. Mary's is strictly Catholic, and is unexcelled by any similar institution in the country, we must say that the question of creed never enters into an admission to the convent. Good morals, clean habits, aesthetic taste and a complete education are all that the good Sisters seek to impart to any of the pupils entrusted to their care. The terms at this popular Academy are moderate as well as the most healthy and the same privileges—the difference being that the Sisters guarantee, at prices which compromise neither, to do what their prospective pupils. Reno has made educational advantages, and among them there are none superior to Mount St. Mary's Academy.

The Last Man.

J. H. McMillan, the Virginia grocerman, was the "last man" at the depot this morning. When he reached the depot the train was some distance up the track, going at a pretty lively speed. McMillan saw, he swore, he started. At first he gained perceptibly on the train, and was encouraged by the on-lookers with: "Go for her!" "A little faster!" "O, you ain't running at all!" etc., but just as he was about to grasp hold of the rear car, the iron horse gave a loud snort and jerked the car out of his reach. Here Mac detected the reason. The train was so fast that he could not keep up. He was so close to the train that he was thrown up his tail! (as the horse men say) and stopped. At this juncture Conductor Bay stopped the train and took the case away aboard, panting hard for breath.

Truckee.

Though Truckee looks quiet, business men there say trade is good.

While in the town Saturday a Gazette reporter learned that the Truckee Lumber Company saw mill and factory, Schaffer's saw mill and factory, the Banner saw mill, the Alder Creek saw mill, the Boca Company's saw mill and factory and the Pacific Lumber and Wood Company's mills are all running to their fullest capacity and give employment to about 500 men.

Their Mission to California.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Dorey left on last evening's train for Berkeley, Cal., having in his charge Miss Nellie Welsh, of Virginia City, whom he will place in the Deaf and Dumb Asylum there. President Brown, of the Nevada University, also accompanied Mr. Dorey. The two gentlemen will visit the California Normal School in San Jose and the Normal School in San Francisco, after which they will purchase the necessary furniture for the State University here.

The Crown Point Development.

Senator Jones is quoted as follows in conversation last Friday with the mining editor of the San Francisco Report: "We have developed a very considerable quantity of good ore in the Crown Point, and yet we know very little about the extent of the deposit. It will take a long time to ascertain how far the ore veins extend, whether up or down, or north or south. But we have a big showing of ore as it is."

Chambers' Encyclopedia.

Mr. E. J. Harley and son have arrived in Reno. They are taking orders for "Chambers' Encyclopedia," a work of reference and exhaustive information upon every subject under the sun, corrected and revised up to date. The work is in eight volumes, containing over 6,000 pages, illustrated, and 40 maps, together with an exhaustive American supplement. Prices: Morocco binding, $25; sheep, $20.

So desirous is the publisher that this peerless production shall be placed within the reach of even the most humble home that they will deliver it complete (the 8 volumes) on a payment of $5, and the balance of payments to be collected at the rate of 50 cents a week. The gentlemen are stopping at the Golden Eagle. August 27.

Baby Humors

And all Skin and Scalp Diseases

Speedily Cured by CUTICURA.

OUR LITTLE SON WILL BE FOUR years of age on the 25th inst. of May, 1886, he was attacked with a very painful breaking out of the skin. We called in a physician who treated him for about four weeks. The child received little or no good from the treatment, as the breaking out, supposed by the physician to be a case of eczema, became larger in patches, and more and more distressing. We were frequently obliged to get up in the night and rub him with soda in water, strong liniments, etc. Finally, we called other physicians, until so less than six had attempted to cure him, all alike failing, and the child steadily getting worse and worse, until about the 25th of last July, when we began to give CUTICURA, and CUTICURA SOAP externally, and by the last of August he was nearly well. We gave him only one dose of the RESOLVENT from every second day for about ten days; longer, and he has never been troubled since with the horrible malady. In all we used less than one-half of a bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, a little less than one box of CUTICURA, and only one cake of CUTICURA SOAP.

Judging by our trade, the majority of candy-eating people know where to buy, but for the benefit of new-comers we will say that we will waver any amount of money that there is no other candy factory or store in Reno that has such an assortment of pure and choice candies as the Nevada Candy Factory. Our candy is not made by steam, and we don't make it every hour, but merely six days in the week. You can always depend upon what we say, as we consider it a deception and a fraud to advertise what we can't substantiate.

Miners Union Picnic.

The annual picnic of the Miners Union of Storey county will take place at Steamboat Springs on Sunday, September 4th. Arrangements are making for a good time. The miners always have the picnic of the season, and this will be no exception to the rule.

WASCOE'S WEALTH.

A splendid showing made by the County Assessor.

Assessor C. H. Stoddard has so far completed his list of assessable property in Washoe county as to be able to give an estimate of the total amount, and, through his courtesy, the GAZETTE is enabled to present the following to-day:

District.	Amount.
Franktown.....	70,545
Washoe.....	63,685
Verdi.....	45,790
Brown's.....	103,905
Huffaker's.....	98,420
Central Pacific R. R.....	121,353
North Glendale.....	94,515
Spanish Springs.....	14,600
Pyramid.....	97,800
Payson.....	23,430
Roop.....	315,445
Reno School District.....	142,515
Reno.....	1,255,430
Wadsworth.....	140,135
Lumber and Wood Companies.....	61,790
Personal Property (not complete).....	188,800
Nevada & California R. R.....	101,170
Virginia & Truckee R. R.....	296,535
Central Pacific R. R.....	1,195,350
Personal Property (not complete).....	120,000
Total.....	$4,557,345

The Assessor endeavored to make the amount of taxable property foot up $5,000,000, but owing to a combination of circumstances he fell short about $400,000, which is mainly owing to the fact that some 12,000 head of cattle belonging to Washoe county stockmen were assessed in Modoc county, Cal., and the wood companies have not within 60,000 cords of wood on hand now as compared with the assessment of 1886. Taking the report as a whole it is a flattering one, and is indicative of the upward progress of the most prosperous county in the State, and the increase over last year—$370,470—conclusively proves that one county is forging ahead at a rate commensurate with its great resources.

Mr. Crossman's Condition.

Rev. G. W. De La Martyr returned last evening from Chats. He reports that Rev. Jas. Crossman, who was so severely injured last week by a fractious horse, is improving, and though not yet out of danger, hopes are entertained of his ultimate recovery. He regained consciousness yesterday, and had lunch during the day and last evening. Mr. Crossman's head and face were badly bruised, but the most serious injury is to the chest, where internal derangements are feared. When Mr. De La Martyr left him he was resting comfortably. Chas. Roberts, who was hurt by the same horse, sustained a dislocation of the ankle in addition to several minor bruises, which, though painful, are not serious.

Railroad Rates for the State Fair.

Secretary Stoddard has received a letter from T. H. Goodman, relative to the rates of fare from points in Nevada to Reno during the State Fair, in which he states that round-trip tickets will be sold for two-thirds the regular fare, according to the new schedule which goes into effect September 1. For the benefit of its readers the GAZETTE appends the new regular rates from a few principal points to and from Reno: Wells, $24 75; Halleck, $22 55; Elko, $20 95; Carlin, $19 40; Palisade, $18 30; Battle Mountain, $15 35; Winnemucca, $11 40; Reno, $7 95; Lovelock, $6 50; Wadsworth, $2 30.

A Model Town.

"Anything" on the docket to-day? queried a GAZETTE itemizer of Judge Young this morning.

"Nothing," said his Honor. "There hasn't been an arrest for two days. I wonder how people think a magistrate is to live (you see, I depend on fees), if there are no fights, fires, burglaries, drunks or murders? Let us hope, however, that it is but a lull before a storm."

The Divining Rod in Mining.

The shaft of the Kirman mine on the western slope of Mt. Davidson is down 500 feet. From the bottom of the shaft a drift is now run 140 feet, having 18 feet further to go to reach the place where the ore body is supposed to exist. All the prospecting done in this mine has been encouraged by the divining rod indications. In a conversation just held with Mr. Kirman, it is learned that the proprietor has the greatest confidence in the prospect. He says that if the ore body, indicated by the divining rod, is not found where he expects it he will sink the shaft 100 feet further. On the indications pointed out by a solid divining rod, no mining operation of such magnitude has ever been carried on anywhere in Nevada.

The company consists of 17 acting people, some well-known in the theatrical world.

RENO WATER.

A Scientific Analysis of that Supplied the Town and of Hunter Creek.

RENO WATER COMPANY.

OFFICE OF C. M. FASSETT, DRUGGIST AND ANALYST, 107 1/2 N. 3d St., Reno, Nev., June 25, 1887.

T. K. HYMERS, ESQ., CHAIRMAN BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS—DEAR SIR:

In accordance with your request I have made examinations of three samples of water furnished by you, with special reference to the impurities which would render it unfit for domestic use, and beg leave to present the following report:

Sample No. 1 was taken from a river about ten miles above town, at the point where the Highland ditch takes its supply; sample No. 2 was taken from the main reservoir, four feet from the surface, near where the water used in the town is taken; sample No. 3 was taken from the Highland ditch just before it empties into the main reservoir. The following is a tabulated statement of the results of the tests made:

SAMPLES.	NO. 1.	NO. 2.	NO. 3.
Free ammonia.....	.0478	.1462	.0478
Albumenoid ammonia.....	.0521	.3094	.0521
(In grains per gallon.)
SAMPLES.	NO. 1.	NO. 2.	NO. 3.
Total solids.....	5.3286	6.7844	6.8596
Organic solids.....	.2144	.3216	.2144
Mineral matter.....	4.1142	5.5338	6.2150
Chlorine.....	Trace	Trace	Trace

The ammonia found indicates the proportion of contamination from animal sources, such as sewage, decomposing animal matter, etc., and in Nos. 1 and 3 is in as small proportion as can be expected in a stream which flows through as many towns as the Truckee; while in No. 2 it is in three times the quantity as in the others, and above the limit of safety—fixed by most authorities at .06 to .12 parts free ammonia, and .15 to .20 parts albumenoid ammonia, per million of water.

The second table shows the results obtained from careful evaporation of the water; drying and ignition of the residue indicating the amount of organic matter, and the water of the Truckee is as free from deleterious matters, prejudicial to health, as any supplied to any city of the Union.

Impurities resulting from sawdust in the river, as shown in the table under the head of "organic solids," but the results obtained show that the amount of such matter is very small, much less, indeed, than is contained in many natural springs, some of which carry five grains of organic matter to the gallon just where they bubble from the earth.

The comparatively large amount of total solids in sample No. 2 is accounted for by the fact that the sample was taken from the ditch the second day the water was running in it, after it had been empty for a few days, the water naturally being turbid from fine particles of silt taken up from the bed of the ditch.

The samples all show an alkaline reaction, but so slight as to be immaterial; being less than one-tenth of the limit of safety, placed at "an alkalinity greater than that produced by adding one part of caustic soda to one thousand parts of distilled water."

These various results show: First—That the water supplied to the town through the main reservoir is not sufficiently pure to be used for domestic purposes with safety.

Secondly—That the water in the river is reasonably pure and wholesome, and the town receives the greater part of its impurities in the main reservoir and its approach.

As applicable to the sawdust question, I quote the following extract from an article on water by Professor S. P. Sedgwick, Ph. D., Professor of Chemistry in the University of Pennsylvania, etc., etc.: "Organic matter may be derived from a vegetable source, such as leaf mold, and the decomposition products of wood, in which case it is practically harmless, or it may be derived from animal sources, in which case it almost always causes a serious impurity."

Respectfully submitted, C. M. FASSETT, Analyst.

ST. REV. BISHOP WHITAKER.

His Eloquent Sermon Yesterday—Warm Congratulations—Farewell.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Whitaker yesterday morning delivered a farewell sermon in the Trinity Episcopal Church, this town, taking as his text the first verse of chapter 4th of the Epistles of St. Paul to the Ephesians, and among the many good things he said to the large congregation present, we condense the following: "The world admits that there is something grand and ennobling in a christian's life. The true conception of every calling in life is that in some unmistakable way it is controlled by divine power and influence. Therefore, we must endeavor to comply with the divine judgment, and whatever be our calling perform our duty nobly. If a man is called to be a mechanic or anything else in human life and he sticks strictly to it, being governed by a truly christian spirit, he is bound to meet with success. In fact, no man is happier than he who obeys this injunction. If a follower of the Divine Master falls by the wayside by committing crime, it is spread all over the land through the press, but if a follower of Jesus does the same thing little is said of him, because it was to be expected. He did not have the protection of christian influence, and hence the forgetfulness which immediately surrounds his career. God is law and order. Order is Heaven's first law. There are no technicalities heard in the Court of the Most High. One rule applies there: 'Do unto others as you would they should do unto you.' That is God's law. Obey it. Be meek. Exercise humility. Be long suffering, and your reward will come through God's goodness. This is the only true christian way to win God's blessings for human hearts and the only practice which will give you eternal happiness. Walk worthily in any vocation to which you may be called and through God's goodness, in which like St. Paul and Moses, if you have confidence, it will enable you to anchor safely in the haven of everlasting peace and happiness.

The sermon was replete with eloquent and feeling passages that affected the audience deeply. The Bishop very feelingly blessed the large assemblage and afterwards met many friends in the rectory.
